

- Visit Dorchester Academy, a school founded after the Civil War for freed slaves. By 1917 this school was fully accredited and had 300 students. The academic program ended in the 1940s however the building remained in use. It was a retreat during the Civil Rights Movement and was even visited by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
- Visit Seabrook Village and take a step even further into the past. This living history museum displays a one room school house, period home and even has opportunities to interact with museum staff to experience the life of the times.
- Geechee Kunda is great stop to experience the vanishing Geechee culture. The mission of this museum is not only to educate but also entertain. Tour the multiple exhibits and attend the events held year-round, browse through the gallery and gift shop and even stay for lunch!
- Stop for lunch at one of the many restaurants of the area. Captain Joe's on Hwy 17 is a great family stop offering a quiet retreat during your lunch. Smokin' Pig, closer out to I-95 is another great family stop with awesome barbeque! Even further out to the coast, try the Sunbury Crab Co. for relaxing seafood lunch by the water.
- Wind down with a walk through the Historic Baptismal Trail. Explore and take the board walk through 9 different ecosystems. You'll see various species of flora and fauna and pass by tons of great photo stops! Head up to the lookout tower or down by the creek for some great scenery.
